

Sermon Title: “James Part XVIII” - Randy Hood

Scripture Reference: James 5:13-18

Connect: Grow together

- 1- How has God shown up this week in your life?
- 2- What can you be thankful for this week?
- 3- How are you doing on your spiritual or personal growth? Did you gain any ground last week?

Deeper: Beyond the message

- 1- What was the main point of the message this week? How would you say it?
- 2- What stood out to you?
- 3- What did the message say about you, God’s people or the world?
- 4- How does this message apply in your life?

Application and Challenge

- 1- Read James 5:13-18 How are you applying the discipline of prayer in your walk?

- 2- Part of the conversation today is about confession. Do you have people in your life that you’re open and honest with that are helping you stay accountable? If not, what’s a good next step for you?

- 3- Prayers can lead to healing. What are your thoughts on healing and the power of prayer? What about when healing doesn’t occur?

- 4- Praise is also a part of prayer. Do you and how can you continually go to prayer and thank God and praise Him for things in your life that are good.
