

Sermon Title: “Anger and Murder” – Pastor Ryan McClelland

Scripture Reference: Matthew 4:21-26 Matthew 25:31-41

Connect: Grow together

1. In what new way did God show up in your life this week? Of if you think He did not show up this week, how do you make sense of that?
2. What are you thankful for this week?

Deeper: Beyond the message

1. What was the main point of today’s message? How would you summarize it in one to three sentences?
2. What did the message say about you, God’s people and/or the world?
3. What did that message mean for our church?

Application and Challenge

4. How is anger akin to murder? What are the implications for us today?
5. What does 1 John 4:19 compel us to do regarding anger?
6. What are tangible ways you have loved someone with views that differ from your own? How have you shown love to someone who thinks and acts differently from you?
7. And what are ways you have messed things up with someone who thinks differently from you?
8. Who are those in the church you struggle with the most? Why?
9. What are some better and Christlike ways for us to listen to others? How can listening be loving?
